- b. "GDPR" - Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC. You can find the text of the GDPR here,
- c. "Social media" - the social networking site we use, i.e. Facebook.

§ 3 Your rights regarding personal data

1. We process your personal data, therefore:
 - a. you have the right to access your personal data,
 - b. you can correct them,
 - c. you can request the deletion of your personal data if the GDPR allows it,
 - d. you have the right to limit processing to the extent specified in the GDPR.
2. In parts II and III of the Policy, you will find information about additional rights. In some situations, you will have additional options.
3. Do you want to exercise your rights or learn more about them? Contact us. Our contact details can be found in § 1 section 3 of this Policy.

§ 4 The right to object

1. After providing us with your personal data or if we collect it ourselves, you can exercise your right to object. You have it in two situations when we process your personal data:
 - a. for direct marketing purposes; you do not have to justify such an objection;

b. based on our other legitimate interests; such an objection must be justified by your particular situation. Tell us why we should not process your data.

2. Do you want to exercise your right to object? Contact us. Our contact details can be found in § 1 section 3 of this Policy.

§ 5 Complaint to the President of the Personal Data Protection Office

If you believe that we are processing your personal data unlawfully, you can lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority. In the UK you make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) or get advice from the ICO. (<https://ico.org.uk/make-a-complaint/data-protection-complaints/>)

§ 6 Personal data security

We use technical measures required by current provisions on the protection of personal data to prevent unauthorized persons from obtaining and modifying personal data sent electronically, i.e. within our Store.

§ 7 Threats

We would like to point out that the threats related to the use of social media include: malware, spyware, information phishing by impersonating trustworthy entities (so-called phishing), hacker activities aimed at breaking into IT systems.
